

Rupert Gregson-Williams

COMPOSER

Rupert Gregson-Williams was born in England and educated at St. John's College Choir School, Cambridge. The multi-award winning composer works from his studios in both London and Los Angeles.

A truly versatile composer, Rupert has written a wide range of scores for many feature films, including the Oscar-winning Hotel Rwanda for which he was awarded the European Film Award for Best Composer, the blockbuster DreamWorks animated films Over The Hedge and Jerry Seinfeld's Bee Movie, for which Rupert was nominated for an Annie Award for his original score and the independent BBC Films' Love + Hate, for which he was awarded the Reims International Composer Award.

Recent scores include Warner Bros' hugely anticipated Wonder Woman, The Legend of Tarzan, starring Alexander Skarsgård and Margot Robbie and directed by David Yates, Hacksaw Ridge, starring Andrew Garfield and directed by Mel Gibson, and the original Netflix series, The Crown created by Peter Morgan.

Other film credits include Winter's Tale directed by Akiva Goldsman, Zookeeper starring Kevin James, Made of Honor starring Patrick Dempsey and Thunderpants starring Stephen Fry.

Gregson-Williams has had a long association with Adam Sandler and has composed the scores for many of his films over the past ten years, including Click, Bedtime Stories, Grown Ups, Just Go With It, Here Comes The Boom, The Ridiculous 6 and The Do-Over.

Rupert has composed the music for various TV projects, including the Emmy-award winning HBO series Veep, AMC's The Prisoner, and Sky Vision's Agatha Raisin. He received an Emmy nomination for the 2002 telefilm "Jack and the Beanstalk: The Real Story" for Outstanding Music Composition for a Miniseries, Movie or a Special (Dramatic Underscore).

Rupert's commercial and film collaborations have included working with Ben Folds, Mark Knopfler, Hans Zimmer, Hadag Nahash, Lebo M., Junior Mambazo and Moya Brennan.

Rupert is co-repped in the US by Fortress Talent Management.
