BRANDON CAMPBELL

COMPOSER

Emmy Award–winning composer Brandon Campbell is recognized as a dynamic and distinctive talent emerging from Hollywood. His music is exhilarating and evocative, spanning feature film, television, and video games.

In 2021, Brandon won his first Emmy Award for his score to Netflix's The Letter for the King. That same year, he received a Hollywood Music in Media Award (HMMA) nomination for his score for Amazon Games' New World. His credits include Slender Man, Pacific Rim: The Black, Aaron Rodgers: Enigma, Amazing Stories, and The DioField Chronicle.

Brandon began his career at Remote Control Productions, working with Ramin Djawadi, where he contributed additional music to Person of Interest, Game of Thrones, and Westworld. He later worked closely with Lorne Balfe as an additional composer on Slender Man, Pacific Rim: The Black, Aaron Rodgers: Enigma, Amazing Stories, and The DioField Chronicle.

When not in the studio, Brandon enjoys training and riding horses on his ranch - a pastime that feels straight out of a modern Western.
