

LUKE RICHARDS

COMPOSER

Luke Richards is a composer for film and television based in London. His recent projects include the 2026 chart topping Netflix thriller series Run Away, the 2025 drama series I Fought the Law (produced by 2026 Best Picture Oscar nominee Liza Marshall and nominated for the BAFTA Awards Best Limited Drama and Leading Actress) and the mini series Six Four, based on the bestseller by Hideo Yokoyama and directed by BAFTA nominated director Ben A. Williams. He has also co-scored, alongside David Buckley, two Harlan Coben novel adaptations for Netflix; Fool Me Once, starring Michelle Keegan, Adeel Akhtar and Joanna Lumley and Stay Close, starring Cush Jumbo, James Nesbitt and Eddie Izzard.

Luke has worked with Oscar winning composer Rachel Portman, providing additional arrangements and programming for the Disney film, Godmothered and with composer Steve Jablonsky, writing additional music for both Transformers: The Last Knight, starring Mark Wahlberg and Anthony Hopkins, and Skyscraper. Luke also contributed additional arrangements for John Powell and David Buckley's score for Paul Greengrass's Jason Bourne.

His film work includes writing the score for The Gettysburg Address starring Matthew Broderick and Oscar nominated actor David Strathairn, and eHero, starring Sean Astin. His music for Remembering the Fallen won Best Original Score at the Los Angeles Movie Awards.

Luke's break into the industry began when he moved to Los Angeles to work for composer Harry Gregson-Williams. Subsequently he was based out of Hans Zimmer's studio, Remote Control Productions, where he worked for composer David Buckley on high profile film and television projects, including American Hustle, The Good Wife and Call of Duty: Ghosts.

Luke's music has been recorded at Abbey Road Studios, The Eastwood Scoring Stage at Warner Bros, The Newman Scoring Stage at 20th Century Fox and the Synchron Stage in Vienna.
