

ADIESCAR CHASE

COMPOSER

Adiescar Chase has emerged as an exciting and distinctive composer and multi-instrumentalist working across a diverse range of projects, from television drama and film to video games and animation. Composing in a variety of contemporary musical styles, Adiescar brings a fresh and unique approach to her work. She has recently received a BAFTA Craft Awards nomination for Best Original Music: Fiction for her score to the Netflix series Heartstopper (produced by See-Saw Films).

Adiescar's other recent projects include All Night Wrong comedy film which recently premiered at South By Southwest London Film Festival, the recent Jack Thorne written romance drama for Channel 4, Falling, the return of the tv drama Bergerac (UKTV/U) - now in its second season, and continued work on the BBC's Waterloo Road drama series, which returned in 2023.

Further works include the BBC documentary Sarah Everard: The Search for Justice, Channel 4 drama Consent, BBC documentary Tommy Jessop Goes To Hollywood, and a collaboration with the legendary electronic artist Jean-Michel Jarre on his latest album.

After graduating with a first class BMus (Hons) degree in composition at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama in 2017, Adiescar went on to study for a Masters in Composition for Film and Television at the National Film & Television School graduating in early 2021.
