

Oscar® Scores

At the Barbican, in association with the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences

The ninth in our series, curated by Academy Award nominee Gary Yershon, in which composers recall the creation of an Oscar-nominated score.

Oscar® Scores: Up (U) + ScreenTalk with Michael Giacchino

Desperate to fulfil a lifelong dream, 78 year old Carl Fredrickson (Edward Asner) attaches thousands of balloons to his house in an attempt to fly away to the South American wilderness. Unbeknownst to the unorthodox jet-setter, he picks up an accidental stowaway in the form of do-gooder boy scout Russell, and soon the unlikely pair are off on an airborne adventure. This funny and poignant tale is Pixar at its very best.

We're delighted to be joined by composer Michael Giacchino to talk about his beautiful score to this film, as well as his work on a diverse portfolio of films including Ratatouille, The Incredibles, Star Trek and Marvel's Spider-Man: Homecoming.

US 2009 Dirs Pete Docter, Bob Peterson 102 min
